

January is
NATIONAL STALKING AWARENESS MONTH

→ Click here to find out what it is
and what you can do about it.

Jan. 14 Headlines

Local News

MLive: Fieger Law sues U.P. police, alleging excessive force led to death of Michigan Tech student

A Detroit law firm is suing law enforcement in the Upper Peninsula over what lawyers are alleging was a wrongful death by excessive force.

Campus Safety: Shooting at Mott Community College prompts new security measures

Mott Community College has implemented enhanced security measures, including mandatory screenings at athletic events, following an isolated shooting that injured one person.

---

National News

Campus Safety: 4 campus security trends to watch in 2026

Key campus security trends for 2026 include the escalation of grievance-driven violence, drone technology, active-shooter pull stations, and the rising influence of safety politics on security decision-making.

Lexington Herald Leader: Multiple reports of assault, harassment filed with KSU police before shooting

During the fall semester, Kentucky State University had a series of crimes - including multiple reports of assault and harassment - at the dorm where a student was fatally shot in December, according to campus crime data.

WCVB 5 Boston: Brown University after-action letter calls for additional review of emergency plans in Providence

As Brown University prepares for the start of a new semester, Providence city leaders plan to commission a third-party review of the response to the December mass shooting on the Ivy League campus and are taking steps to support local businesses affected by the incident.

Desert News: Utah students threatened during campus debate, as state eyes more money for security

An individual threatened to "Kirk" conservative students at the University of Utah on Monday, and then proceeded to gesture his hands in the motion of cocking a rifle aimed at them, according to a video recording of the event and police reports.

Want to help curate DPSS Open Source Headlines?

Let us know, email dpss-strat-comm@umich.edu

For questions or feedback regarding the open source report contact DPSS Strategic Communications

2026 University of Michigan Division of Public Safety and Security
This is a daily open source report provided to DPSS Staff

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe